

Triana Science & Technology will attend and will co-organize the first International School on Biological Crystallization that took place in Granada from 18 to 22 May 2009.